Book an exclusive matinee or evening at The Rebel

Have you ever wanted to have a theatre completely to yourself? Why not book an exclusive matinee or evening show in The Rebel Theatre? At just $78 per head, up to 180 of your staff, board members and clients will enjoy a fabulous occasion of high-quality entertainment while supporting Australia's oldest youth theatre company, a not-for-profit charity that has launched the careers of numerous stars — Nicole Kidman, Baz Luhrmann, Rose Byrne, and of course, Rebel Wilson. Many famous faces have been through our doors and your staff will have exposure to the next generation of up-and-coming artists and some well-known ones too!

At a base rate of $14,000, our theatre package is a great way to celebrate. Your guests will get the best seats to experience the finest youth theatre in the country.

To make your event the very best, customise your celebration with the following add-ons:

Drama Workshop [P.O.A]

If your guests have young children [12yrs and under], book a drama workshop for them during the event. While the adults enjoy their event at the theatre upstairs, the children will partake in a fun and engaging drama workshop with professional teaching artists. Treated to a special ATYP gift bag and a delicious meal by The Fresh Collective, they'll get to have their own special event downstairs. What's not to love?!

Wine Tasting with Robert Oatley [$60pp]

Indulge your guests to a one-of-a-kind wine tasting experience in one of our amazing rehearsal rooms, overlooking the harbour, before the show. Guests can sample a remarkable portfolio of wines from award-winning wine makers, Robert Oatley. With a variety of signature wines, they're sure to satisfy everyone's palate and be a notable start to your event.

Live Music [$600ph]

Add some atmosphere to your event with music as an addition to a wine tasting or simply as entertainment after the show. From jazz to pop, ATYP can connect with the professional Sydney-based musicians to bring your event to life and add that extra special touch.

Speeches [$250]

Have something important to share on the day? Allow ATYP's production team to set the scene and provide technical support at either pre/post show.

Panel Discussion [$2,160]

Want to spark conversations during your event? No matter what the topic, ATYP can work with you to engage with industry professionals, creatives and experts to speak, share differing perspectives, and start conversations — allowing your guests to learn, interact, and engage with the arts more broadly.

Post Show Q&A [$1,620]

Ever wanted to learn more about the creative process and get a behind-the-scenes look into the making and development of a show? Consider adding in a Q&A with the creative team at the end of the performance. This is a great way for your guests to meet-and-greet the key casts and creatives!

Catering by The Fresh Collective [P.O.A]

Treat your guest to a delicious selection of canapes pre or post show from The Fresh Collective. With a bespoke menu that can be styled to excite the imaginations of your guests, The Fresh Collective work diligently to bring you the freshest local and responsible farm foods that reflect the best of the season.

From backstage tours to theming and more — ATYP can work with you to fully customise an unforgettable event for your team!
